WHAT TO KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

To ensure a safe and enjoyable visit to Lincoln County Nevada, please travel with care and read the safety tips and frequently asked questions below. Remember, this is a high mountain desert environment with open range highways, so please be prepared.

WHAT IS OPEN RANGE?
Much of Nevada is designated as "open range" which means that the highways are not fenced and it's the responsibility of the driver to avoid meandering animal including deer, elk, sheep and wild horses. Livestock is free to roam across the blacktop so keep an eye out, especially at night. If possible, it's best to avoid driving long distances after dark.

WHAT SHOULD I BRING WHILE TRAVELING LINCOLN COUNTY?
Vehicle survival kits are always a good idea and all county and BLM vehicles carry some type of provisions. Some basic items include drinking water, flashlight, food/snacks, blanket or sleeping bag, first aid kit, duct tape and an assortment of tools.

IS THERE CELL PHONE RECEPTION?
Yes, but it's spotty at best. It's best not to depend on having any kind of reliable cell phone reception.
